ALLISON'S POWERS HEIGHTEN WHEN SHE FINDS HERSELF ABLE TO NOT ONLY SEE THE PAST, BUT ALSO TO SEE THE FUTURE

"Coming Soon" #004—When Devalos introduces Allison to a good samaritan that is helping his case out, Allison senses only evil from him. With no evidence to back up her intuition, Joe is convinced that Allison may be pregnant and the vision is a hormonal side affect on, MEDIUM, Monday, March 7, 2005 (10:00-11:00 PM, ET/PT) on NBC. Vincent Misiano directed the episode written by Moira Kirkland.

Realizing her period is late; Allison and Joe consider the possibility of another baby. While Joe would love to finally have a boy, Allison isn't convinced she wants to deal with the responsibility of having another baby. At the same time, Allison is perplexed by the visions she is having about a good samaritan. The man has a clean record and is helping the police by testifying against a convicted criminal.

Meanwhile, Joe decides to tutor Ariel in math, a subject she is struggling in. Convinced that math is in her genes, Joe is astonished when Ariel starts to miraculously know the answers to all his math questions. Knowing Bridgette shares her mother's gift of visions, Joe is overjoyed that Ariel has his math abilities. Allison soon bursts Joe's bubble when she realizes that Ariel is simply reading her father's mind. Allison also comes to realize that her visions about the good samaritan are indeed true, but won't take place for another seven years. Allison urges him to seek help before her visions come true. She also tracks down the victim in her dream, a young girl, and warns her about the future.
