

NCIS SPECIAL AGENT DINOZZO GOES UNDERCOVER IN ORDER TO RECOVER VALUABLE IRAQI ANTIQUITIES

Frank Whaley Guest Stars

“Chained” - #032 - When several Iraqi relics that were smuggled out of Iraq are stolen, Special Agent Dinozzo goes undercover to seize the culprit and the stolen items, on NCIS Tuesday, December 14, 2004 (8:00-9:00 PM, ET/PT) on CBS. Tom Wright directed the episode written by Frank Military.

Dinozzo is called to go undercover as an escaped criminal when NCIS Special Agents are unable to obtain the truth about stolen Iraqi remains from Jeffery White (Frank Whaley). If the contents are not recovered within a 48-hour time frame, the chances of them being sold into private art collections and lost forever becomes greater. While Dinozzo works on trying to find out the whereabouts of the remains, Gibbs, Kate, McGee and Abby track their every move.

As the Deputy Secretary of State hounds the NCIS team for a status of the Iraqi belongings, the evidence reveals that there may have been foul play with White’s partner in crime and White is electing Dinozzo to be his new sidekick. Little does White know that Dinozzo and his team of Special Agents are about to crack the case when they find the antiquities at a storage facility across the street from a Wal-Mart.
